

Please do not allow cellular telephone use aboard aircraft. I travel almost every week and do not wish to hear other peoples conversations. It is bad enough now allowing them until the door closes, it would be worse than a crying baby to allow them all the time.